The bear is considered the king of the Finnish forest; it is respected, but also feared. In ancient times, the bear was probably even a tribal emblem, a totem animal, alongside the other major animal of the Finnish forest, the moose.

▶ Wolverine - KPW4 One of our most popular knives for razor sharpness, comfort in hand, rugged beauty and general use.

▶ Otter - KPO2 This sleek knife has a 2.25" razor sharp stainless steel blade. Made for carving, whittling and every day small tasks. This knife is easy to retrieve from the sheath and comfortable in the hand and pocket. The handle is dyed birch.

▶ Puukko - KPR4 a beautiful dyed arctic curly birch handle with a 3.75" razor sharp polished carbon steel blade. This knife has a full-tang construction with a brass bolster.

◀ Kullervo Crafted by one of Finland's top makers in Lapland, these have hand forged razor sharp carbon steel blades. Durable arctic birch bark for the handle is soft and warm even in the cold and is also water resistant. With a leather sheath in a wood display crate. Available with 2.75", 3.3" and 3.7" blades.
